OTTAWA MAN WINS S.G.W.U. AWARDS

An Ottawa-born former Fisher High School student has captured two major awards at Montreal's Sir George Williams University.

Stanley Robert Shaffer is winner of both The Birks Medal to the highest ranking graduating student in Arts and the Governor General's Medal to the graduating student showing the highest achievement in the field of English language and literature.

Mr. Shaffer's degree and awards were presented to him by his father, Professor Harold Shaffer, Director of Sir George's School of Retailing, former general manager of Shaffer's Ltd. The presentation took place at the University's Convocation held recently at Expo's Place des Nations.
